HOUNDS OF LOVE
The music of Kate Bush

Kate Bush only toured once, in 1979.

With the blessing and personal involvement of her former tour manager and Kate herself, Hounds of Love is the first time that a live interpretation of her music has been toured in the UK.

This is no pastiche or cabaret act.

Fronted by the passionate and impressive Josie Mills, this dedicated band of musicians are bringing to life songs that deservedly appeal to generations of music lovers.

The band's programme includes many of Kate's hit's including Wuthering Heights, Babooshka, The Big Sky, Wow and Running Up The Hill, amongst others. Without attempting to emulate the voice of Kate Bush, Josie finds the expression to communicate Kate's songs with impressive, passionate sympathy.

Quotes - what others say:

"Just to hear the songs performed live would have been enough, but your vocal mastery and the bands performance was astounding."

"Saw you at Milton Keynes and was amazed! Kate herself would have been so proud."

(Comments from people who've seen the band live, posted on the band's dedicated YouTube Channel at www.youtube.com/user/HoundsofLoveBand)

THE HOUNDS OF LOVE BAND

This is a group of dedicated musicians fronted by vocalist Josie Mills who love and appreciate the work of Kate Bush, her compositions always elevated to a heart felt live performance. See the Hounds of Love band live and you'll never experience a pastiche or cabaret act, they're more of a deal to inspire anyone to reach out for the original recordings that deservedly span generations of music lovers.

Without attempting to emulate the sound of Kate Bush, Josie finds the expression to communicate the songs of Kate Bush with impressive passionate sympathy.

THESE ARE A FEW REVIEWS FROM THE AUDIENCES SO FAR...

Went to see Hounds of Love play live in Bristol last night, almost 30 yrs ago since I saw the real Kate perform in the Hippodrome. Anyway the concert was just fab, it was a proper gig with a great band and an excellent lead singer... It was bloody brilliant.

Saw the Hounds of love band yesterday in Brighton it was great. Well done!!! had real spirit as if we were seeing Kate and the band themselves but certainly didn't feel just like a copy cat group! good luck on the rest of the tour.

They were very enjoyable The band were solid and it leant a new dimension in places to hear the songs this way. The term 'tribute' act is quite apt, as this is what it felt like: no imitations, no impersonation, just people who seemed to really want to play these songs to an audience from a love of them.

Don't judge them based on what's on myspace or youtube - however good they sound on there, they're much better live. I was really impressed with the musicians involved - very very talented.

"Thanks for a wonderful evening. It was the first time we saw you and your band and you rocked. I couldn't stop smiling and singing all night and can't remember the last time we had such an enjoyable evening.

Your voice is totally amazing and extremely powerful and wide ranging and the band were just completely awesome. All the band were incredibly talented and played so well together. Well done all of you for such an amazing gig and for making us very happy. TOTALLY WOW."

What an AMAZING gig - we really loved it. The quality of band and jaw-dropping vocal range and knowledge of Kate Bush songs won the day. great music performed brilliantly Awesome set list - it was wonderful to hear Kate's music live and so close to the original work..
